LAS VEGAS - Morpheus Lights announces the appointment of Barbara Brennan as vice-president of business development. She has joined the Las Vegas office management team and will assist in developing market strategy, industry communication and relationship development.

Chief Operating Officer Mark Fetto says, "We are thrilled to have Barbara join our team. A highly respected industry veteran whose family established Cinema Services in Las Vegas in 1968, Barbara has spent a literal lifetime in our business. As an Emmy award-winning lighting designer and experienced sales executive with contacts in every branch of the live entertainment field, we look forward to implementing Barbara's vision and industry networking ability to promote our brand awareness."

"I am delighted to be joining the Morpheus Lights team," says Brennan. "Morpheus is a respected company comprised of seasoned professionals. I look forward to combining our talents and experience to create new business opportunities in the entertainment industry markets."

Brennan has served the entertainment industry for more than 35 years. She attended UNLV with a major in theatre and began her career at Cinema Services of Las Vegas. In 1996, she established Brennan Productions, Inc. to provide lighting design and technical services to the industry. Brennan Productions went on to become the factory representative of Strand Lighting
